District Superintendent to Preach on Nov. 8

We are honored to welcome Rev. Natasha J. Murray, our District Superintendent and Mission Strategist for the Central District of the Arkansas Annual Conference, as our preacher on Sunday, Nov. 8 at the 8:30, 9:05, and 11 a.m. worship.

Rev. Murray is an ordained elder and has served congregations and ministries in Arkansas and Kansas since 2007. She has served as Senior Pastor of St. James UMC in Pine Bluff and the Director of the University of Arkansas, Pine Bluff Wesley Foundation, and as the Pastor of Hospitality and Belonging at FUMC, Little Rock. In addition to earning her Master of Divinity from St. Paul School of Theology, she has a Master of Political Science from ASU.

She has recently served on the Arkansas Conference delegation to Jurisdictional Conference and as an alternate to General Conference.

Rev. Murray grew up in Forrest City, and is married to Rev. Mark Norman, Senior Pastor at Highland Valley UMC. They have two children, Kelly and Mylas, and one granddaughter, Luna.

Guatemala Team Openings

Keith and Sarah Coker will be leading a team to Guatemala to help build stoves for the Mayan families who are still cooking on the ground in their homes. The Cokers went with Conway FUMC this past January and are now leading a team Feb. 13-23, 2027. There are several openings still. If you would like to be a part of this team, please contact Bonnie Laycock at 316-207-0883.
